

upromise

This program allows you to build a college fund for anyone you choose simply by presenting a card at the checkout everytime you shop at bigg's. It's like saving even more money every time you shop! Get your free keytag at any bigg's, then visit www.upromise.com to activate your account.

Every time you make an eligible purchase, our partners return a portion of that money back to you. Those earnings accumulate in your upromise account until you decide to use it to invest in a 529 plan, help pay down eligible student loans or assist with college expenses— all tax-free!

It's as easy as 1-2-3.

1. Join upromise. It's free!
2. Earn money for college with every eligible purchase. Participating items are marked with a Upromise shelf tag.
3. Pay for college, now or later.

Visit www.discoversomethingbiggs.com/go/pump-perks for instructions on linking your upromise and Pump Perks cards together.
